John Regier is the Director/Founder of Caring For the Heart Ministries, author and conference speaker, and pastored for 24 years prior to opening a counseling office in 1996. The Caring for the Heart counseling approach applies Scriptural principles to identify and resolve issues, so that the freedom God originally planned for each person can be experienced. John is dedicated to giving full-time ministry and lay leaders in the church the resources needed to biblically resolve problems.

Caring for the Heart Ministry connected my heart to Jesus. Through the loving care provided by the ministry leaders in my church I have found healing and restoration. This ministry showed me Jesus's heart. I was not only loved by Jesus but I was taught to love like Jesus. ❤️

~Lisa D.

Caring for the Heart Ministry trained me to care for people in ways that I never knew before. Instead of being afraid of not knowing what to do or say, I am eager to provide a safe place for Jesus to care for their hearts and blessed to see Him do it.❤️

The conference is one of the best life investments I have ever made. John’s material is transferable in ministry, relationships, and parenting. Whatever it takes to get there, it’s worth it.❤️
