The Meisels have served as missionaries and Christian school teachers. Greg also served as the Pastoral Counselor at Union Baptist Church (Waterford, VT). For over seven years, Greg and Wendy have been counseling full-time with CFTH-NE. They both graduated from Appalachian Bible College in Bradley, WV. They received additional training in counseling at Caring for the Heart Ministries in Colorado Springs, CO. Greg and Wendy counsel couples together and their greatest joy is seeing those couples receive healing and experience freedom in Christ.
Purpose Statement

Caring for the Heart - New England exists to help hurting individuals and couples who have been damaged and need spiritual assistance in resolving their personal, emotional, and spiritual problems. We are available to assist in diagnosing their problems and lead them to find Biblical answers to their problems.

The Purpose of our Counseling

1. To identify the particular emotional or spiritual problem(s) of each person
2. To identify the cause of the problem(s)
3. To lead each person to a Biblical resolution for each problem identified.

“The best part of my counseling experience was spending time talking to Jesus and leaving with the reminder that He is my Healer.”

---

What is the cost?

Caring for the Heart - New England never charges for counseling. We are solely supported by the donations of those who believe in our counseling ministry. Many of our supporters have gone through the counseling themselves. CFTH-NE is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit. All gifts are tax-deductible.
